About a Compromise.

As to one of the points which we raised in our issue of Friday last in commenting upon its suggestion that the regular Demoerats and the Mahoneites should hold a primary election and thus decide which of the two electoral tickets should be withdrawn from the field, the Petersburg Appeal of Saturday remarks :

.. We distinctly said the primary election must be conducted within the Conservative French Men of Letters. By MAURICE MAU. or Democratic party as constituted in 1876. Of course no negroes should be permitted to vote who are not recognized and wellknown Conservatives. We do not see how the Readjusters can reject a proposition of They have repeatedly claimed a majority of the white vote of the State. If the claim is an honest one, and they are sincere in their support of Hancock, the terms of arbitrament are certainly favorable enough to them."

There are in Richmond no negroes who are "recognized and well-known Conservatives." Therefore no negro is allowed to vote in our primary elections. We believe that what is true of Richmond is true 50 cents. of every county and city in the State ; and ..
